

I strongly opposed to cell phones on board planes since it is unsafe to the people on board the plane. The number one priority and concern that you (government) should have is SAFETY.